

2002

Interfaith America was founded based on the idea that religious difference should serve as a bridge of cooperation rather than a barrier of division. Since that time, Interfaith America has evolved from a small Chicago-based nonprofit to the nation's premier interfaith organization.

Interfaith America builds bridges across lines of difference in the following sectors...

- Higher Education
- Religious Diversity & Bridgebuilding
- Policy
- Religion in the Workplace
- Faith & Health

Across Our Work, We...

- Advance racial equity
- Equip Emerging Leaders
- Tell inspiring stories of pluralism

505

campuses substantively engaged in programming designed to enact institutional change around interfaith engagement

Impact on Campus

97

educators and emerging leaders were awarded Building Interfaith America grants to further interfaith cooperation in their specific contexts

8

institutions were awarded $30,000 Advancing Religious Pluralism grants

315

attendees at the 2023 Interfaith Leadership Summit, including, for the first time, senior administrators who participated in their own program track

250

faculty in our Faith & Health Network

2,100+

members of the Emerging Leaders Network

283

original articles published in Interfaith America Magazine in 2023

11,000+

downloads of the Interfaith America with Eboo Patel podcast

2,100+

community members reached through Team Up projects in 2023

950

learners engaged with IA's Foundations of Interfaith Leadership online course