

Katie Bringman Baxter

Chief Impact Officer

www.linkedin.com/in/katiebringmanbaxter

Both her religious convictions and her work with diverse student populations motivate Katie to strive for a world in which people of diverse backgrounds can live, work, and build community together. She oversees Interfaith America's impact and central services, ensuring alignment, integration, and efficiency across projects. Katie has senior responsibility for IA's measurement, evaluation, and learning work, thus aligning IA's resources with outcomes and ultimate impact. She stewards organizational change, strategy, and cultural efforts. Katie has been published in the Journal of College and Character, Liberal Education and helped develop the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America's policy statement on Inter-Religious Commitment. Her interest in religion and fourteen years in successive leadership roles at Interfaith America built on an MA in College Student Personnel from Bowling Green State University and a BA in religion from Wittenberg University.

Areas of Expertise
