

2002

Interfaith America was founded based on the idea that religious difference should serve as a bridge of cooperation rather than a barrier of division. Since that time, Interfaith America has evolved from a small Chicago-based nonprofit to the nation's premier interfaith organization.

Our Reach:

- Higher Education
- Civic and Community Spaces
- Faith & Health
- Institutional Partnerships
- Religion in the Workplace

Across Our Work, We...

- Advance equity
- Equip Emerging Leaders
- Tell inspiring stories of pluralism

573

campuses that are engaging or have engaged substantively with IA programs over the past four years and that are positioned to advance institutional change

Impact on Campus

11

institutions were awarded $10,000 Inspiring Campus Change grants to create more welcoming environments for people of diverse religious, secular, and spiritual identities

150

participants, including 20 college presidents, convened for the first Advancing Campus Pluralism conference in partnership with the American Association of Colleges and Universities

40+

campus trainings and consultations conducted by IA

$9M+

distributed by IA to fund local pluralism and bridgebuilding projects since 2023

492 students and educators attended the 2024 Interfaith Leadership Summit, the largest in-person Summit to date

2,200+

members of the Emerging Leaders Network (ELN)

48

Building Interfaith America grants awarded to support the ELN in addressing social needs in local communities

38

local affiliates of Catholic Charities USA, Habitat for Humanity International, and the YMCA of the USA were awarded $15,000 Team Up grants, helping to make bridgebuilding not only a value but a norm in communities nationwide articles on everyday pluralism and interfaith work published in IA Magazine magazine since 2020

2,500+

Produced a national PSA, "Shared Table," in partnership with the Ad Council and American Immigration Council, encouraging Americans to take action to advance social cohesion. The campaign has generated 2 billion+ impressions across broadcast, digital, and social platforms.